Local Citizens along with local businesses make Boone County distinctive and authentic – and ensure that we don't become Anytown, U.S.A. Locally-owned businesses employ the services of other local businesses, carry locally made goods, often serve as community hubs and more. We're where the locals go. We're your friends and neighbors.

The presence of local retailers and services is a big part of what makes Boone County the place we call home. In November 2004 we formalized these ties by starting a new group, COLORS, Columbia Locally Owned Retail & Services. COLORS is a non-profit organization that is a cooperative effort among citizens, locally owned, independent business and non-profit groups in Boone County. We strive to help maintain community character and a strong, diverse and sustainable local economy by raising public awareness of the benefits of supporting local independent businesses. By making informed spending decisions, you can help maintain our town's uniqueness. COLORS is a member of AMIBA, the American Independent Business Alliance www.amiba.net.

You can join this grassroots effort by becoming a Citizen member! Your $15 yearly membership pays for itself in just a few visits to the great stores and services you already patronize! See the Community Buying Guide or www.colorsalliance.org for a directory of locally owned businesses and the discounts they offer.
